On-Site Regulations

- EACs must confirm work orders before arrival and may not solicit additional work.
- Motorized carts, scooters, and mechanical material handling equipment are prohibited.
- Floor marking tape must remain in place until show close.
- Booth designs must comply with the Exhibitor Resource Manual.
- EACs must adhere to fire, safety, and exhibit hall regulations.
- Only EACs having existing Javits Center authorization to hire I&D labor directly from the Javits Center Labor Administration Office may do so. Please check with your EAC to determine whether they meet this requirement.
- At no time may an EAC provide labor from any source outside the Javits Center to erect or dismantle booths.

Labor & Contractor Coordination

- EACs must cooperate with Freeman (the General Services Contractor (GSC) for efficient labor, space, and time use.
- Installation must be completed by 5:00 PM on October 7 and dismantled by 12:00 PM on October 13.
- EACs must follow all labor laws, venue regulations, and union contracts. Any labor disputes affecting the event will be the EAC's full responsibility.
- EACs must pay costs related to their operations, including overtime, space restoration, and waste disposal.

Facility & Space Management

- The exhibit floor, aisles, docks, and storage areas are under GSC control; EACs must coordinate activities accordingly.
- EACs must keep operations within their client's exhibit space—no service desks, storage, or work areas outside of designated booths.
- Aisles and public spaces must always remain clear.

Show Organizer Authority & Enforcement

- The Show Organizer has final authority over all show rules and participation.
- EACs must meet all the venue and GSC requirements to operate at New York Comic Con.
- EACs must provide emergency contact details and a local contact available during move-in and move-out.
- Access Denial: EACs will be barred from the show if they:
  - Breach any show regulations.
  - Cause labor disputes, strikes, or disruptions.

Liability & Risk Management

- EACs are responsible for their own property; the Show Organizer and venue assume no liability for theft, damage, or loss.
- EACs must obtain appropriate insurance coverage for property loss and liability risks.
- EACs must be registered and authorized to work in the Javits Center and comply with all federal, state, city, and venue regulations.
- By participating, EACs agree to these terms and acknowledge their responsibilities.
